The third of our solo concerts, organised with the help of the Allan Church, takes place at the end of the month. This time it's on a Sunday evening at 6.30pm (note the earlier time) and features Gareth Davies-Jones from Northern Ireland (yes, really, despite the name!). Gareth has been performing professionally for 20 years and played in Murrayfield Church almost exactly 10 years ago (24 Oct 2014). He was much appreciated that evening, and his 2024 concert will feature the best of his songs written on a variety of topics over the last 20 years. Tickets are now available from John Cross or Elizabeth Hastings.
